

Cross-ownership of media will even further limit an already constricted media outlet, where print media and tv news report on entertainment and entertainers as news because they are owned by the same parent companies, where 5 different radio stations are owned by the same company in one town and all play programmed music, where access to the air and print media is severely limited. I oppose this and ask that you do the same.

Sincerely yours,